REPAIRING IRON WORKS

Ironworks can get rusty after a few years and some of the parts can also get damaged if they are not handled carefully. We are not saying that the same will happen with our products but if there are existing iron structures in your house that require repairs, you can always contact us. We have got the right tools and equipment to repair or weld the damaged area.

There are many other services that you can opt from Big Easy Iron Works such as installing security windows, solar screens, porch enclosures, railings, and many other structures.

WHY CHOOSE BIG EASY IRON WORKS?

Big Easy Iron Works offers high-quality security iron works consistently to its customers. Our designs and iron structures work on any building or establishment from houses to commercial properties. The dedication of our team has helped us reach where we are today and we hope that our new customers will find us worthy enough to hire us:

- » The quality of iron we use is different than the other companies. They are meant to last long and not get rusty quickly.
- » We have an express team in New Orleans, Louisiana that can meet any deadline and installation that you ask for. All you have to do is select the design of the iron structure that you like and place the order. We will take care of the installation
- » We provide a one-year paint warranty to all our clients, as well as a structural frame warranty of 3 years
- » We do a direct business. Instead of the usual sales pitch from a representative, clients can speak directly to the owner.
- » Free estimates: You won't be charged when you come to us for the cost of our products and services.

TESTIMONIALS FROM OUR CLIENTS

One of the reasons why we have been so consistent with our service is that our clients have given us their support all the time. The quality of service and the products that we provide have always made our clients happy. It is their positive feedback that has kept us going. We have had the opportunity to work with a lot of big companies where iron structure installation was required. Every company has mentioned that they would like to work with us again.

WHAT OUR CLIENTS SAY

“Great job on the iron gates! I can’t believe they finished installing the iron gate and repairing our fence. A lot of my neighbors recommended Big Easy Iron Works and I can see why they trust them so much. Very professional workers came and the owner checked up from time to time. Great experience.”

- VANESSA JOHNSON

“You have my respect for Big Easy Iron Works! Thank you for staying true to your word about quality service. They helped install our new iron fence and it exceeded my expectations to be honest. They explained everything they would be doing every day of the job. I really recommend them for those living in New Orleans. Hire them for your fencing needs.”

- BILLY ANDERSON

“I contacted Big Easy Iron Works because most of my neighbors recommended them to me. I am satisfied with the time that they took to finish the work repairs with my wood fence. The fences they placed turned out nice and they looked like they would last longer. I would also recommend them to my friends in New Orleans.”
