

Suggestion to Maslow & Osho

Both have said something to the tone of -

'Only rich man can attain Nirvana, Enlightenment, Self-Transcendence (or whatever BS that is)'

For a long time I've been wondering why Switzerland & Nordic countries
not 'producing' enlightened masters?

Why so many Lotus(es) have bloomed
in India?

Let me ask them both (Maslow & Osho), 'What do you have to say about Kabir, Rumi, Guru Nanak?'

India is (currently) on step 3 or 4
of the ladder & still a lot of steps
to climb for self-transcendence, acc.
to you, right?

WRONG!

व्यक्तिगत जीवन की दृष्टि से ही समाज है।

Why did all those Mughals & Muslims have to burn down all the Nalandas (Kailji) & Vikramshila [Both in Bihar, now looked down upon because it could not recover from the trauma - such a tragic and humongous scale] Jagaddala & Samapura (Bengal)?

Because they had the potential of blooming so many, so many LOTUS (os) there. Not because those universities were opulent and luxurious.

One has to be rich and curious in the mind. Having a library of 1,50,000 books is also not rich (looking at you, OSHO!). Anyone can get the delusion of enlightenment, esp. intellectual enlightenment, after reading few books.

It's not like Switzerland is lower than India on spiritual realm.

I have firmly believed that the sole goal of creativity & spirituality
is ONE!

And Switzerland has been home to some of the greatest minds in the history of humankind!

I think EAST has to, has to melt WEST.

Osho, Alan Watts, & others were right in this regard.

INDIA & SWITZERLAND should cooperate on much deeper, deeper levels to guide the (turbulent)
world forward.
